THOMAS ALCARAZ EARNS AMEA AWARD

Thomas Alcaraz, choir and theater teacher at Flowing Wells Junior High, has been named the New Choral Educator of the Year for 2020 by the Arizona Music Educators Association! This is Thomas's second year in Flowing Wells. The Mustangs are extremely proud of Mr. Alcaraz and the excellent work he has done in his short time at FWJH!

W2 FORMS AVAILABLE BY JANUARY 31ST

All 2019 W2 forms will be available in ESS by January 31st. In addition, the Business Office will be sending a printed copy of employee W2 forms to sites. Be sure to check your school/department mailbox for your copy. If you have any questions or concerns, contact Fran Bond in Payroll at 696-8819.

IMMERSION STUDENT SUBS ON FRIDAYS

As part of a partnership between Flowing Wells and the U of A, FW hires pre-service "Immersion" students to substitute teach for the District on Fridays. We want to use our Immersion students as much as possible. If you have a planned absence on a Friday: Before using Absence Management, please call or email Amy Collinsworth so she can schedule an Immersion student to sub for you.

FLOWING WELLS IS HIRING FOR THE 20-21 SCHOOL YEAR!

If you know a teacher who might be interested in joining our school district next year, please encourage him or her to apply! We will continue to post all known positions as they become available, so the job listings will change often. Help us spread the word about Flowing Wells and the meaningful impact our teachers have in the lives of our students. To apply or to get more information, applicants can visit the FW website.

SUPPORT STAFF EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Congratulations to Kayley Ford, former special education teaching assistant at Richardson Elementary School, and current teaching assistant in the Sierra School program for ED students on the Richardson campus. Kayley was selected as the FW Support Staff Employee of the Month for January for her dedication to working with students, and her patience when dealing with challenging situations at Richardson.
