

MAKING MOMENTS IN FLOWING WELLS

What valuable lessons can be learned from NOT succeeding?

THANK YOU TEACHERS AND STAFF!

Kudos to all teachers and staff for your careful planning and hard work teaching the new emergency procedures, and answering the many questions that followed. This is an extremely difficult topic, yet all of our principals, teachers, and staff approached the task thoughtfully and worked as a team to ensure that our students learned what to do in an emergency. THANK YOU, FW!

CROWDFUNDING REMINDER

If you plan to fund a project for your classroom using crowdfunding, you must follow written District procedures and gain prior approval from your principal. See your school's administrative assistant to learn more.

ALBERTO RANJEL CHOSEN TO PRESENT AT TEDx TUCSON!

Alberto Ranjel auditioned and has been selected to be a presenter in January at the TEDx Tucson conference! Beto's topic is The Importance of Relationships in Education. We are so proud that Beto will represent FW in this exciting event!

FWHS GRAD MEMBER OF ESTEEMED "TRANSFORMERS: SPACE" PANEL

Dr. Britney Schmidt, FWHS Class of 2000, has been asked to speak in a panel discussion about the "new space race." The event, Transformers: Space, is sponsored by The Washington Post. Other panel members include Bill Nye, NASA officials, representatives from Boeing and the Smithsonian, and Vice President Mike Pence. Britney earned her PhD in Geophysics and Space Physics and has worked with NASA. She is currently a professor of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences at Georgia Tech.
